6 w. THOMAS HARTLEY.

CHARLES-TOWN, March 30, 1765.

THE Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD set out from hence, by Land, for Philadelphia, where, we hear, he intends to embark for England in June or July next. He is to preach at several places in the different provinces he passes thro' on the Way.

We are well informed, that ship-building is likely to be carried on with great spirit at Beaufort, Port-Royal, where a ship, a brigantine, a sloop, and several scooners are now on the stocks. There is also a brig in some forwardness here, and only the want of shipwrights prevents many other vessels being set up.

The Lower-Chicasahs have been here to complain of encroachments on their lands; but the people complained of being ordered to remove, the Indians are gone away thoroughly satisfied.

It is reported, that the Creek Indians have refused to comply with the superintendent's request, to meet and talk with him at Pensacola.

The Grenville Packet Boat, Capt. Carlett, with the mails on board, in her route from Pensacola, ran ashore the 27th ult. at two in the morning, upon the Dry Tortugas, and was entirely lost. Nothing was saved but the people, 7 gallons of water, and a few biskets. Some of the people arived here on wednesday last, in Capt. Bassett's vessel from Havana.

The snow Duke, Capt. Frinck, of and from this port, for Oporto, is lost on the rocks of Bermuda.

For some time past, robberies have been committed here almost every night, either in stores, or on board vessels. But such precautions are now taken, that unless the villains immediately desist, they may be soon detected.

There are a great number of the counterfeit TWENTY POUNDS orders circulating, that were lately advertised by the Public Treasurer: And it seems there are a large gang of villains concerned, as they have attempted to put off a good many in North Carolina and Georgia, and different parts of the country, at nearly the same time; wherefore it becomes people to be very cautious in taking them. The plate is well cut, but the signers names ill imitated.

Three new negroes, of the Bambara country, supposed all belong to one master, they speak no English, but by what can be learnt from a fellow, who understands their country tongue, their names are POMPEY, HUMPHRY, and CAPTAIN; but cannot tell their master's name. POMPEY and HUMPHRY are very tall. CAPTAIN is middle sized, and his great toe spreads very much from the other; he has on a white negro cloth jacket and trowsers with a blue jacket, the other two have white negro cloth jackets and trowsers, with white and blue woollen caps, their beards pretty much grown; they were taken up at a place called Stevens's Creek, near Augusta.
